

Newsletter

Edinburgh's Hogmanay

7,000 extra seats!

Cruise Scotland

Burns Day on the Isle of Bute

Christmas Events

Classic Scotland

Newsletter Archive

Newsletter

Welcome to the BookingScotland.com newsletter!

This section is updated every month with agent-only special offers and the latest news from Scottish suppliers which include:

- Tour Operators
- Accommodation Suppliers
- Visitor Attractions

Also check here for the latest news about the annual study tour programme and updates from the SCOTS team.

Edinburgh's Hogmanay

Edinburgh's Hogmanay this year is a five day event, it is officially the World's largest New Year celebrations, featuring some unmissable performances including a dance piece, Off Kilter, at the Festival Theatre (29 December – 2 January), the Torchlight Procession (29 December), and the famous Hogmanay Street Party (31 December) including the Concert in the Gardens, and The Ceilidh.

The Concert in the Gardens headliners on 31 December are Madness, supported by The Noisettes. There will also be DJ sets by Snow Patrol, Belle and Sebastian and Mylo on Princes Street. The Waverley Stage headliners will be announced soon and special events are also planned for the 30th December and 1st January.

Further Information...

Edinburgh's Hogmanay

Web: www.edinburghshogmanay.com

E-Newsletter

Sign up now for exclusive news, offers and competitions.

Sign me up

Pictures of Scotland

ScottishViewpoint.com »

Book accommodation

VisitScotland.com »

Canadian Affair, Scotland's largest tour operator to Canada, has announced that it will add two more direct nonstop weekly flights from Glasgow International Airport to Toronto Pearson International for summer 2010.

This gives Canadian passengers an extra 7,000 seats to Scotland for the summer 2010 schedule. The additional capacity will see Canadian Affair's Glasgow to Toronto service increase to seven flights a week with fares starting from £258 return per person, including taxes. With weekly flights also operating from both Calgary and Vancouver to Glasgow the total capacity from Canada for summer 2010 is now an impressive 51,500 seats.

Further Information...

Canadian Affair

Web: www.canadianaffair.com

Cruise Scotland

Cruise Scotland, together with VisitScotland, are targeting US SCOTS in an effort to highlight awareness of Scotland as a cruise destination. Breathtaking scenery, stunning cities, haunting history, UNESCO World Heritage sites, and a variety of ports large and small make Scotland the perfect cruise destination for all your clients.

The recently formed marketing group has compiled a list of 45 cruises operated by US or UK cruise lines which will be visiting Scottish ports of call during 2010. Visit the Cruise Scotland website for information on all the Scotland cruise ports which are ideally located for all your clients' itineraries.

Further Information...

Gordon Ireland at Cruise Scotland

Tel: +44 (0) 1463 710729

Email: gordon.ireland@highland.gov.uk

Burns Day on the Isle of Bute

Mount Stuart, one of Britain's most astounding Victorian gothic mansions on the Isle of Bute, is holding a traditional Burns supper in their Marble Hall on Friday 22nd January 2010. This fantastic event will take place 8pm- 12midnight with a special guest chef and speakers to be announced. Individual tickets are priced £50 and a table of 8 priced £360, with 10% commission to the trade. This is the perfect addition for your clients' itineraries to make their Scotland trip one to remember.

Further Information...

Mount Stuart

Tel: +44 (0) 1700 503 877

Web: www.mountstuart.com

The National Trust for Scotland is offering a host of exciting activities for groups this Christmas. Located at some of Scotland's top heritage attractions they include the scintillating 'Keeping Christmas' at Pollok House, where every room will be decorated in a different theme; the magical 'Enchanted Castle' at Culzean – see it transformed into a fairy tale fantasy world; a very special Victorian Christmas at 800 year old Brodick Castle and the thrilling 'Cairngorm Reindeer Parade' at Christmas Past Crathes Castle.

With hassle-free shopping and delicious festive food available, there's something for everyone to enjoy this Christmas at the National Trust for Scotland.

Further Information...

National Trust for Scotland

Tel: +44 131 243 9304

Email: traveltrade@nts.org.uk

Web: www.nts.org.uk

Classic Scotland

Classic Scotland, a leading luxury private tour operator, provides a wide range of tours throughout Scotland. Our tours cater for your client's interests, with expert and fully qualified Blue Badge Driver/ Guides. We offer 24 hour itinerary planning and are able to offer departures all year for any group size. We offer a wide range of activities from tracing family roots, visiting historical sites, golf, fishing together with other activities and festivals. Accommodations can be from beautiful bed and breakfasts to the finest 5 star hotels and castles. Fully bonded and licensed tour operator.

Further Information...

Stephen Wood at Classic Scotland

Tel: +44 (0)1277 841651

Email: s.wood@classic-scotland.com

Web: www.classic-scotland.com